Brent and other prominent speakers are expected to be present and to deliver addresses. The demonstration is to be a grand one, and all Democrats are cordially invited to be present and participate.

The Democrats of Accomac have been celebrating their victory daily at "most eminent" the election, by bonfires, illuminations and with salutes from several small cannons reserved from the ignoble service of corner posts, for which they have been used for several years. On Thursday after the election, the Democrats of Onley fired several guns and otherwise gave vent to their patriotic feelings, followed by similar celebration of their "brave" enthusiasts, the brethren at Parkside and Messing on Friday night, Accomac C. H. and Bloxon on Saturday night, Mearsville and Pastorina on Tuesday night. About two hundred people were present at Pastorina, and a big oyster roast of 30 bushels, was among the attractive features.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Bellevue Haven. Lodge A. O. U. W., continues to receive accessions to its number...

Rev. J. T. Moore, our pastor of M. E. Church, South, left for Conference Tuesday—and is not expected to return.

Mr. John J. Sterling and Miss Ida R. Powell were married at residence of Capt. James Traut, on Wednesday, 12th inst.

West, Willis & Wyatt continues to be headquarters for ladies dress goods, gents furnishing goods, fine shoes &c.—new supply received weekly.

Mr. Judson Ashley and Miss Lila Johnson, were married at bride's residence, near Jamesville, Monday, 10th inst., Rev. J. T. Moore officiating.

The oyster packing establishment at Scarborough & Rowley, Willis wharf, heretofore noted through your columns, will begin operations next week with 30 shuckers.

At this writing, 13th inst., preparations are being made for a full dress ball to be given here, Friday night, by our young men, in aid of "the light fantastic." Mr. Geo. W. Abell, Dr. Geo. L. Ames and Dr. S. H. Ward are the committee on arrangements. A two-tonne brass band engaged—150 invitations issued—everything to be as merry as a marriage bell.

I have a full line of gun goods, in men's long and short boots at last year's prices. D. H. Johnson, Leemont.

Rev. J. W. Turner baptised on Sunday, in the Eastern channel, two converts and received them with two other candidates into his church on same day.

S. A. Mahon, Lighthouse engineer, visited us this week for the purpose of selecting a site for the erection of a cottage for principal keeper of Assateague Light. The old house is to be occupied by his two assistants.

Old Tom, the oldest pony on Assateague and which has been in the service of the Life Saving Station located there for a number of years has been put on the pension list and another pony secured for the service.

Capt. C. E. Baubitt & Son have been awarded the contract to move the Ocean City Life Saving Station 130 feet west of present location, and Uncle Sam will erect on frame of same one of the latest and most modern stations in the district.

Arrivals at Atlantic this week: T. S. and S. Chipman, New Haven, Conn.; S. A. Mahon, M. T. Weeks, Geo. T. Erickson, Philadelphia; J. H. Feidenam, Baltimore; M. E. Selby, Wilmington, Del.; Capt. B. S. Rich, W. K. Collins, Dr. J. T. Taylor and son, Dr. O. F. Byrd, Geo. W. Emore, A. Kesson, C. W. Gillette, Thos. Pettit, Capt. Frank Marshall, Accomac.

Prof. T. L. Disharon, principal of our public schools, has been engaged by the owners of Wallops Island to take charge of their "club house," December 1st, at a salary of $700 per year. He was the manager last season and evidently gave satisfaction to the owners as they now engage him again in a similar capacity in preference to numerous other applicants. The club-house is to be enlarged, ice house built and other improvements made at an early day.

Steamer "Albemarle," owned by Capt. Jno. W. Bunting, will be put on the route from here to Philadelphia, the last of this month, in charge of Capt. Wm. Bunting. She will carry both passengers and freight, the latter 20 per cent less than the railroad and if the trade justifies it he will put a second steamer on the line. Steamer "Albemarle" will carry a barrel of oysters to Philadelphia for 40 cents—and make three trips a week.

Public School Report for October. Number of schools in operation 108; number of graded schools in operation 23; number of pupils enrolled 4,157; number of pupils in average daily attendance 3,057; number of schools visited by superintendent 31.

The monthly reports of the teachers, with but few exceptions, were promptly made to the superintendent, with postage stamps enclosed; but several were improperly folded and sent in small envelopes. Please, in future, fold them as indicated by the printed form, and mail in large envelopes, as they must be kept on file for future reference and it is necessary to have them neatly and properly folded. Please fill up all the blanks on said monthly reports.

Any teacher wishing to subscribe for the "Educational Journal of Virginia," will direct to Wm. Ellis Jones, Richmond, Va.—subscription price $1 in advance, specimen copies 10 cents. Several have made the enquiry. THE PENINSULA ENTERPRISE is our county school organ, and would save our teachers the trouble of often writing to superintendent and trustees for school information. Very respectfully, J. E. MAPS, Co. Supt. Schools, Grandville, Va., Nov. 10, 1890.

Democrat's Joint-Action in Pocomoke City. The citizens of Pocomoke City will have a grand Democratic life day on Monday, November 18th, at 10 o'clock, at the Pocomoke Hotel, in that town. The citizens of Accomac and Northampton generally are invited to join in the festive exercises of the occasion. Indeed, it is proposed to make it a joint celebration of the counties of Eastern Shore of Maryland and Virginia. The following from the Pocomoke Star, published in the town, show that it is to be an occasion of more than ordinary interest. It says:

"It is the purpose of the committee having the matter in mind to make this a day long to be remembered in the history of the town. This committee has sent out invitations to all the Democrats of the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Virginia to attend. In the afternoon speeches will be made by distinguished Democrats. Invitations have been sent to U. S. Senator E. K. Wilson, Hon. Endow Raymond of Baltimore; Hon. W. A. Jones of Virginia and our Congressman-elect, Col. Henry Parze of Somerset. These, together with other good Democrats, will be present. The town will be decorated with flags and bunting, and at night there will be a grand illumination."

Death of Capt. A. F. Cobb. Capt. Albert F. Cobb, proprietor of the well known popular sea-side resort, Cobb's Island, died of a sudden of heart failure on his way to that place from the mainland, on Thursday of last week. He had been a sufferer for some time with heart trouble, but on that day seemed in finer spirits than usual and without any of the symptoms indicating the disease, when he fell back in his own arms, exclaiming, "I am gone," and died instantly. He was interred on the following day at Cobb's Island, Rev. C. S. Holby of the M. E. Church, South, conducting the funeral exercises. Mr. Cobb was genial and accomplished, his heart just and generous to those in his employ, popular and respected as a citizen—and his death is generally regretted.

At the time of his death Mr. Cobb was accompanied by a notary Mr. Rod Nottingham, on his way to the Island to take the acknowledgment of his wife to a deed, transferring his interest in Cobb's Island to Stock Company, with a capital, it is said, of $250,000, which proposed to improve the property with a handsome hotel, cottages, &c., and to make it one of the leading summer resorts on the Atlantic coast.

If you want to buy a nice ladies' shoe for $1.25, come and see me. D. H. Johnson, Leemont.
